

Order of the Day

1. Dogs (Amendment) Bill 2016 – Third Reading approved

Mr Cretney to move:

That the Dogs (Amendment) Bill 2016 be read a third time and do pass.

The Acting President: We turn to our Order Paper. Item 1, the Dogs (Amendment) Bill 2016, and I call upon Mr Cretney to move the Third Reading.

Mr Cretney.

5 Mr Cretney: Yes, thank you, Mr Acting President.

I would like to thank Hon. Members for their scrutiny of the Bill and also for the improvements made during its process through this Branch of the Legislature. I do not believe there are any questions outstanding.

I beg to formally move its Third Reading, and that the Bill do pass.

10

Mr Henderson: I beg to second, sir.

The Acting President: Mr Henderson, thank you.

Mr Anderson.

15

Mr Anderson: Thank you, Mr Acting President.

Can I just thank the hon. mover for the reassurances he has given as the passage of this Bill was taken through this place. I think the general public will be reassured by the reassurances that the Member has given about the implementation of this scheme.

20

The Acting President: Mr Cretney, do you wish to reply?

Mr Cretney: It is always good to reassure.

25

The Acting President: There being no other Member wishing to speak, the motion is, Hon. Members, that the Bill be read a third time and do pass. All those in favour, please say aye; those against, no. The ayes have it. The ayes have it. The motion carries.
