LEGISLATION BILL 2014

LEGISLATION BILL 2014

Explanatory Memorandum

1. This Bill is promoted by the Council of Ministers.

PART 1 – INTRODUCTORY

2. Clause 1 states the short title of the Act resulting from the Bill, if enacted (this “Act”).
3. Clause 2 provides for commencement of this Act to be by order of the Council of Ministers, except for clauses 1, 80, 92 and 98(5) which will commence on the announcement of Royal Assent to Tynwald.
4. Clause 3 sets out the main purposes of this Act, namely –
 - (a) to bring together into one Act general provisions about Manx legislation and non-legislative public documents, apart from those matters to be provided for under the Act resulting from the Interpretation Bill 2014 (the “Interpretation Act”);
 - (b) to facilitate improvement in the presentation of Manx legislation;
 - (c) to rationalise procedures for the making of statutory documents;
 - (d) to facilitate the updating and ready availability of Manx legislation (which is facilitated mainly by provisions about access to and reprinting of Manx legislation and for consolidating Acts); and
 - (e) generally to ensure Manx legislation is of the highest standard.
5. Clause 4 provides for the Act and the Interpretation Act to be read together. They both apply to all Manx legislation and non-legislative public documents.
6. Clause 5 provides that this Act’s application may be displaced wholly or partly by a contrary intention. Clause 6 makes this Act subject to provisions of the European Communities (Isle of Man) Act 1973, which is concerned with the application of EU legislation. Clause 7 introduces Schedule 2, which sets out the definitions applicable to this Act.

PART 2 – ACTS

Division 1 – Announcement and promulgation

7. Clause 8 provides that Part 2, Division 1 applies to any Act from when it receives Royal Assent. Clause 9 provides for announcement of Royal Assent to Tynwald. Clause

10 contains provisions about an announcement certificate stating the announcement day.

8. Clause 11 provides for promulgation and the procedure surrounding promulgation is set out in clauses 13 and 14. Clause 12 provides that an Act expires if not promulgated within 18 months. Clause 15 provides for a promulgation certificate. Clause 16 provides that in a reprint of an Act a statement about its announcement day or promulgation day is admissible as evidence of that day.

Division 2 – Commencement

9. Clause 17 makes general provision about commencement of Acts. Clause 18 provides for an Act's citation and commencement provisions to commence automatically on its announcement day. Clause 19 makes provision where an enactment is to commence on a day to be fixed by statutory document.

10. Clause 20 provides that an amendment of an uncommenced Act does not commence the Act and that the amendment itself commences when that Act commences. Under clause 21 the repeal of a commencement provision does not affect the Act's continuing operation.

Division 3 – Miscellaneous

11. Under clause 22, all Acts must be judicially noticed as public Acts. Clause 23 provides that each provision of an Act has effect as a substantive enactment.

PART 3 – PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

Division 1 – Making and commencement

12. Clause 24 provides, for execution of public documents and clause 25 provides for when a public document is made. Clause 26 gives power for a public document to be commenced by notice. Under clause 27 if a public document commences on a particular day, it commences at the start of that day, but, if it provides for a specific time on that day, it commences at that time. Clause 28 provides that an amendment of an uncommenced public document does not commence that document and that the amendment itself commences when the document commences.

Division 2 – Statutory documents: Tynwald procedures

13. Clause 29 provides a definition of “Tynwald procedure”, and clauses 30, 31, 32 and 34 make provision for the different types of Tynwald procedure. Clause 33 makes provision for what happens when Tynwald fails to approve a document to which clause 30 or 31 apply.

14. Clause 35 enables Tynwald to resolve that a statutory document subject to any Tynwald procedure be changed to another and, if so, for the Council of Ministers to amend the enactment concerned accordingly.

15. Clause 36 provides for a default requirement for statutory documents to be laid before Tynwald as soon as practicable after they are made (unless they expire before the next sitting).

Division 3 – Miscellaneous

16. Clause 37 provides a mechanism whereby Statutory Documents containing minor errors can be corrected after laying before Tynwald so as to avoid the need to withdraw and relay the documents and also to avoid the consequent delay in the Statutory Documents coming into operation.

17. Clause 38 provides for a presumption that a public document is validly made unless the contrary is proved.

PART 4 – ALL MANX LEGISLATION

Division 1 – Numbering, citation and distribution

18. Clause 39 provides for the numbering of each Act by the Clerk of Tynwald, proposing a new system of “AT” (meaning “Act of Tynwald”) numbers unique to Acts of Tynwald in place of chapter numbers. This is to align Acts with the concept of SD numbers used for statutory documents. Clause 40 provides for the Clerk of Tynwald to number each statutory document. Clause 41 provides for the citation of Manx legislation.

19. Clause 42 provides for the filing of Manx legislation in the Public Record Office and for certified copies to be provided to the Tynwald Library and the Attorney General.

20. Clause 43 obliges the Attorney General to make arrangements for the publication and sale of Manx legislation and for the Attorney General to arrange for the legislation to be published in an electronic gazette on a website approved by the Attorney General for that purpose. Publication requires notice of the passing of the legislation and either information as to how copies may be obtained or the text of the legislation.

21. Under clause 44 there is a new general defence to contravening Manx legislation if it has not been published unless the prosecutor proves reasonable steps were taken to bring it to the notice of the public, persons likely to be affected by it or the defendant.

Division 2 – Amendments: general

22. Clause 45 provides that amending legislation is to be read as one with the legislation it amends. Clause 46 makes default rules for where amendments are to be inserted.

23. Clause 47 provides that an amendment to a provision is to be made wherever possible in the provision (for example, if there is a change of name it is made in all places where the old name occurs). Clause 48 provides for the automatic consequential amendment of certain pronouns, punctuation, numbering, etc. or if legislation substitutes a reference to a person or body for another one. According to clause 49, the relocation of a provision to a different place in the legislation or elsewhere in legislation does not change its meaning.

Division 3 – Repeals and amendments

Subdivision 1 – General

24. Clause 50 deals with the time at which a repeal takes effect and clause 51 treats expired legislation as having been repealed.

Subdivision 2 – Automatic repeal of spent amendments

25. Clauses 52 and 53 define “amending legislation” and “amending provision” respectively and clause 54 goes on to provide for the repeal of all existing amending legislation, thereby clearing off the statute book all amending provisions that have taken effect and are therefore now spent. Clause 55 provides for the automatic expiry of future amending legislation and provisions.

Subdivision 3 – Operation of repeals and amendments

26. Clause 56 provides that a repeal (under Subdivision 2) has effect for all purposes and clause 57 provides that an amendment or repeal operates once and for all and repealed legislation is not revived if the provision that repealed it is itself repealed. Clause 58 ensures that the amendment or repeal of Manx legislation does not affect anything done under it, etc. Nor, according to clause 59, does repeal affect the continuing operation of savings, transitional or validating provisions.

Division 4 – Default savings and transitional provisions

27. This Division makes general provision where legislation is repealed and re-enacted (clause 60). Clause 61 contains interpretative provisions for the Division. Provision is made for existing appointments to continue (clause 62), existing securities to remain in operation and things done under the old legislation to continue (clause 63), existing proceedings to continue (clause 64), existing penalties and rights to be preserved (clause 65) and things done under the old legislation to have the same effect and to be enforced (clause 66).

28. Under clause 67 references in other legislation to the old legislation are read as to the new and references to an old body in other legislation are read as references to their successor under the new. Under clause 68 provision is made for instances where a thing happens after the repeal of the old legislation if legislation refers to the old legislation.

Division 5 – Miscellaneous

29. Clause 69 provides that if an Act amends a statutory document, the document may be amended or repealed as if the amendment had been made under a statutory document.

PART 5 – REPRINTS

Division 1 – General

30. Clause 70 gives the Attorney General power to authorise and publish versions of Manx legislation and other applied legislation and to authorise and publish corrections of errors. These publications are known as reprints. Under clause 71 the Attorney General may delegate the Attorney General's functions to the Chief Legislative Drafter. There is also power for the Attorney or the Chief Drafter to nominate another appropriately qualified person in the Attorney General's Chambers (and a reference in this Act to the Chief Legislative Drafter includes such nominee).

31. Clause 72 gives the Attorney General power to publish both hard copy and electronic reprints and to declare that any such reprint is an official reprint. Clause 73 affords an official reprint (whether a hard copy or electronic version) authoritative status in court.

Division 2 – What reprints must and may include

Subdivision 1 – Amendments

32. Clause 74 states that a reprint must show all of the reprinted legislation as in operation on a stated day, including all amendments to it that commenced on or before that day, though uncommenced amendments may be shown so long as they are differentiated and there is a note stating that they have not commenced.

Subdivision 2 – Reprint changes

33. This Subdivision is about making certain minor changes or corrections in producing reprints (clause 75), the detailed provisions for which are in Schedule 1. The approval of the Attorney General is needed, who must consult with the Clerk of Tynwald. The change must not change the effect of the text or renumber or relocate any provision (clause 76). A reprint change has effect as if it had been made under an amending provision (clause 77).

Subdivision 2 – Reprint notes

34. Clause 78 requires an official reprint to include, before the text of the legislation reprinted, notes stating that the Attorney General has authorised the reprint as an official reprint and the reprint date. Clause 79 states that a reprint must include endnotes giving details of amendments and corrections and changes at the end of the text. Clause 80 enables reprints to include other notes to help users. The notes do not have legal effect and must be shown in a way that differentiates them from the text of the reprint.

PART 6 – CONSOLIDATIONS OF ACTS

Division 1 – Legislation Consolidation Board

35. Clause 81 establishes the Legislation Consolidation Board. Its functions are to draft consolidation Bills that combine or split Acts or relocate provisions between Acts or places in Acts (clause 82). The Board is to consist of the President of Tynwald (who chairs it), the Speaker, a member of the Council of Ministers, the Chief Secretary, the Attorney General and the Chief Legislative Drafter (clause 83).

Division 2 – Drafting powers

36. The powers of the Board are set out in clause 84. A number of changes may be made that do not affect the meaning of legislation, as is confirmed by clause 85.

Division 3 – Enactment procedures

37. Clause 86 provides for the Board to certify to the Clerk of Tynwald that a Bill is a consolidation, without which (or the approval of the Council of Ministers) it cannot be introduced into Tynwald under the procedure set out in clause 87. This enables a Bill for a consolidation to be passed without the need to pass through any stages in the Branches of Tynwald so long as at least one sitting of Tynwald has passed since its introduction. If approved by Tynwald it is taken to have been passed by both the Keys and the Legislative Council. An amendment may be moved only with the leave of the President of Tynwald or if the Board has certified in writing that the amendment is necessary to correct an error.

38. Clause 88 provides that if a consolidation is approved by Tynwald the Board must certify to the Governor that the Act is a consolidation and that either the Act does not change the effect of existing legislation, any changes to the effect are minor or the changes in effect are wholly due to amendments moved by Tynwald.

PART 7 – OTHER PROVISIONS

Division 1 – General

39. Clause 89 empowers the Council of Ministers to delegate its powers to make public documents under the Act to the Chief Minister.

40. Clause 90 contains general regulation-making powers for the Council of Ministers for the purposes of this Act.

Division 2 – Savings and transitionals

41. Clause 91 transitions requirements of Government authorities under existing Manx legislation for a newspaper publication to a requirement to publish the electronic gazette and, if appropriate, for reasonable steps to be taken to bring it to the attention of the public or persons likely to be affected by it.

42. Clause 92 makes provision to carry over existing reprints and for the effect of existing notes in reprints. Clause 93 applies the default savings and transitional provisions under Part 4, Division 4 for the Acts this Act re-enacts. Clause 94 contains a declaratory provision about existing amending and repealing provisions.

PART 8 – REPEALS AND AMENDMENTS

43. This Part will, under clause 55, expire after this Act's promulgation, depending on when the Part commences.

44. Clause 95 repeals 9 Acts. Six of them are reproduced in this Act. The other 3 are spent save for some provisions. For one, the provision can be repealed because of clause 52 (no revival if amendment or repeal repealed). For the other 2, the provisions are re-enacted or saved by amendments under clauses 97 and 98.

45. Clauses 96 amends 3 Acts that cross-refer to repealed legislation.

46. Clauses 97 makes some consequential and minor amendments to the Evidence Act 1871

47. Clause 98 makes a series of amendments to other legislation concerning appeals. It also amends the procedure for certain statutory documents under the Building Control Act 1991 to the affirmative Tynwald procedure. It also contains some consequential and minor amendments and amendments that save or re-enact some provisions of Acts repealed under clause 95. The clause also amends the Tribunals Act 2006 to make minor adjustments to the processes about the appointment and tenure of office of Chairmen and members of tribunals under that Act to provide greater flexibility which has proved to be necessary as experience of the 2006 Act's operation has grown. It also makes a group of minor amendments in relation to tribunal rules under various enactments so that in future almost all tribunal rules will be made under section 8 of the 2006 Act, and also repeals the Douglas Library Act 1938 which is now obsolete, as library provision can now be funded from general rates and the restriction contained in the 1938 Act puts Douglas in a worse position than other local authorities on the Island.

48. It is not envisaged the Bill will have any significant cost implications. The Bill is not expected to increase Government expenditure or reduce its income. Administration of the Bill will be resourced from the existing budget, and using the existing staffing, of the Attorney General's Chambers. The simplification in processes and wording associated with the provisions and the consolidation provisions should obviate the need for periodic Statute Law Revision Bills, with consequent savings in staff costs and time.

49. It is expected that the measures mentioned above to streamline the Statute Book and the drafting of primary and secondary legislation and for the reprinting and consolidation of legislation will result in medium and long-term savings to Government. The provisions for publicly available official electronic reprints will save the Government (and the community generally) the cost of having to purchase individual reprints from a commercial publisher. The streamlining effected by the Bill in describing the processes associated with legislation will give rise to modest savings in printing costs because Bills will be shorter. In addition the automatic repeal

50. In the view of the member moving the Bill its provisions are compatible with the Convention rights within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 2001.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Council and Keys in Tynwald assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

11

1 Short title

12

The short title of this Act is the Legislation Act 2014.

13

2 Commencement

14

(1) This section and sections 1, 80, 92 and 98(6) commence on the announcement day for this Act.

(2) Otherwise this Act commences on the day appointed by order of the Council of Ministers.

17

18

3 Main purposes of Act

19

(1) The main purposes of this Act are —

20

(a) to bring together into one Act general provisions about Manx legislation and non-legislative public documents, apart from those matters provided for under the Interpretation Act 2014 (the “Interpretation Act”);

21

22

23

24

(b) to facilitate improvement in the presentation of Manx legislation;

25

(c) to rationalise procedures for the making of statutory documents;

(d) to facilitate the updating and ready availability of Manx legislation; and

(e) generally to ensure Manx legislation is of the highest standard.

Notes:

1. The words “Act”, “Manx legislation”, “non-legislative public document” and “statutory document” are defined in Part 1 of the Interpretation Act.

2. The Interpretation Act’s main purposes include providing for what is the text of Manx legislation and stating the basic rules for statutory interpretation (see section 3 of that Act).

3. Definitions appear in quotation marks. Those in plain text are only for the particular section in which they appear. Those for more than one section are emboldened. Schedule 2 lists all emboldened definitions for this Act. Those defined in the body of this Act are signposted in Schedule 2.

- (2) The updating and availability of Manx legislation is facilitated mainly by provisions about access to, and the reprinting of, Manx legislation and for consolidating Acts.

4 Combined operation of this Act and the Interpretation Act

- (1) This Act and the Interpretation Act are to be read together.
- (2) Both Acts apply to all Manx legislation (including this Act) and non-legislative public documents.
- (3) Manx legislation and non-legislative public documents are taken to be made on the basis that they are to operate in conjunction with both Acts.
- (4) However, subsection (3) is subject to sections 6 (displacement of Act by contrary intention) and 7 (applied Parliamentary enactments: Parliamentary Interpretation Acts apply) of the Interpretation Act.
- (5) Despite subsections (2) and (3), this Act does not apply to Measures, or the making of Measures, under the Church Legislation Procedure Act 1993.

5 Displacement of Act by contrary intention

- (1) The application of this Act may be displaced, wholly or partly, by a contrary intention appearing in Manx legislation or a non-legislative public document to which this Act applies (the “instrument”).
- (2) However, a provision of this Act is not to be displaced by a provision of the instrument to the extent the provisions can operate concurrently.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies even if the provisions deal with the same or a similar subject matter.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 18(2) (automatic commencement of citation and commencement provisions) and 24(2) (making public documents).

1 6 Relationship with European Communities Act

2 This Act is subject to sections 2A to 2C of the European Communities Act.

3 7 Definitions for Act

4 Schedule 2 contains definitions for this Act.

5 PART 2 – ACTS

6 DIVISION 1 – ANNOUNCEMENT AND PROMULGATION

7 8 Application of Division

8 This Division applies to each Act from when it receives Royal Assent.

9 9 Announcement of Royal Assent to Tynwald

10 (1) The President of Tynwald must announce Royal Assent to Tynwald.

11 (2) The day the announcement is made is the Act’s “announcement day”.

12 10 Announcement certificate

13 (1) The President of Tynwald and the Speaker must sign a certificate (the 14 “announcement certificate”) endorsed on or annexed to the Act stating 15 its announcement day and the time it was announced on that day.

16 (2) The announcement certificate is conclusive evidence of the matters it
17 states.

18 (3) A certificate purporting to be the announcement certificate is presumed 19 to be one unless the contrary is proved.

20 11 Promulgation requirement

21 After its announcement day, the Act must be promulgated under this Division
22 (“promulgation”).

23 12 Act expires if not promulgated within 18 months

24 (1) If the promulgation of the Act has not taken place within 18 months after 25 the announcement day, the Act ceases to have effect.

26 (2) However, subsection (1) does not affect the validity of anything done
27 under the Act.

28 (3) If an Act ceases to have effect under subsection (1), any Manx legislation
29 it amended or repealed is, from the cessation, revived in the form in

1 which it was in operation immediately before the amendment or repeal
2 commenced.

3 (4) Subsection (3) applies despite section 57 (no revival if amendment or 4 repeal repealed).

5 13 Pre-promulgation procedure

6 The Attorney General must prepare a memorandum in Manx and English
7 containing the Act's short title and a concise statement of the effect of the Act.

8 14 Promulgation on Tynwald Hill

9 (1) The promulgation of the Act takes place by the reading of the 10 memorandum on Tynwald Hill by or under the authority of the 11 Deemsters.

12 (2) The reading has the same effect as if the entire Act had been read on 13 Tynwald Hill.

14 15 Promulgation certificate

15 (1) The President of Tynwald and the Speaker must sign a certificate of 16 promulgation (the "promulgation certificate") in attestation of the 17 promulgation of the Act on a stated day (the Act's "promulgation day").

18 (2) The promulgation certificate is conclusive evidence of the Act's
19 promulgation.

20 (3) A certificate purporting to be the promulgation certificate is presumed to 21 be a promulgation certificate unless the contrary is proved.

22 16 Evidence of announcement or promulgation

23 In a reprint of the Act, a statement about its announcement day or promulgation
24 day is admissible as evidence of that day.

25 DIVISION 2 — COMMENCEMENT

26 17 General commencement provision

27 (1) An Act is "enacted" or "passed" and commences when it is announced
28 to Tynwald on its announcement day.

29 (2) If an Act or a provision of an Act commences on a particular day
30 (including its announcement day), it commences at the start of that day.

31 (3) This section is subject to the other provisions of this Division.

- 1 18 Automatic commencement of citation and commencement provisions
- 2 (1) The provisions of an Act providing for its citation and commencement
- 3 provisions automatically commence on the Act's announcement day.
- 4 (2) For section 5, this section –
- 5 (a) is not displaced merely because the Act provides that the Act
- 6 (without mentioning any particular provisions) is to commence
- 7 on a day to be fixed under a statutory document; but
- 8 (b) is displaced if the Act expressly states a statutory document is to
- 9 fix a day for the Act's citation and commencement provisions to
- 10 commence.

11 19 Provisions for commencement by statutory document

- 12 (1) This section applies if a Manx enactment is expressed to commence on a
- 13 day to be fixed under a statutory document.
- 14 (2) The statutory document may fix a single day for the commencement or
- 15 different days, times or purposes for different provisions of the Manx
- 16 enactment to commence.
- 17 (3) Amendments made under the Manx enactment may be given separate
- 18 commencements, whether or not a provision in which they are contained
- 19 is self-contained.
- 20 Examples:
- 21 1. A provision of the Manx enactment inserts 2 sections. They may be given separate
- 22 commencements.
- 23 2. A provision of the Manx enactment inserts a section divided into subsections. The
- 24 subsections may be given separate commencements.
- 25 (4) If the day or time fixed for the commencement happens before the day
- 26 on which the statutory document is published in the electronic gazette
- 27 under section 43(1)(b) (the “notification day”) –
- 28 (a) the statutory document is valid; but
- 29 (b) the Manx enactment does not commence until the notification
- 30 day.

31 20 Commencement of amendment of uncommenced Act

- 32 (1) This section applies if an Act (the “amending Act”) amends an Act that
- 33 has not commenced.
- 34 (2) The amendment of the uncommenced Act does not of itself commence
- 35 that Act.
- 36 (3) The amendment made under the amending Act commences when the
- 37 provision amended commences.

- 1 21 Commencement not undone if repealed
- 2 (1) If—
- 3 (a) a provision of an Act providing for the Act's commencement is
- 4 repealed after the Act commences; and
- 5 (b) other provisions of the Act are still in operation,
- 6 the repeal of the provision does not affect the Act's continuing operation.
- 7 (2) Subsection (1) does not limit another provision of this Part and is in
- 8 addition to any provision of the Act under which the repeal is made.
- 9 (3) If a statutory document providing for an Act's commencement is
- 10 repealed after the Act commences, the repeal does not affect the Act's
- 11 continuing operation.

12 DIVISION 3 — MISCELLANEOUS

- 13 22 Acts are public
- 14 An Act is, and must be judicially noticed as, a public Act.

- 15 23 Provisions of Acts are substantive enactments
- 16 Each provision of an Act has effect as a substantive enactment without
- 17 introductory words.

18 PART 3 — PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

19 DIVISION 1 — MAKING AND COMMENCEMENT

- 20 24 Making public documents
- 21 (1) A public document must be made by being executed —
- 22 (a) for a Department, under paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the
- 23 Government Departments Act 1987;
- 24 (b) for a Statutory Board, under paragraph 9 of Schedule 2 to the
- 25 Statutory Boards Act 1987; or
- 26 (c) otherwise, by a person authorised for the purpose by the
- 27 responsible authority for the document.
- 28 (2) For section 5 (displacement by contrary intention), subsection (1) applies
- 29 to a public document unless its authorising legislation expressly states
- 30 the subsection does not apply to public documents made under it.

- 31 25 Day of making
- 32 A public document is made on the following day —

- 1 (a) generally, the day it states it was made; or 2 (b) if it is made jointly by 2 or more authorities and it states any of 3 them made it on a different day, the last day on which it is stated
4 to have been made by any of the authorities.

5 26 Power to provide for commencement by notice

- 6 (1) Subject to the requirements of any Tynwald procedure, a public
7 document may provide that any or all of its provisions (other than its 8 citation and commencement provisions) are to commence on a day to be 9 published (a “commencement notification”) in —
10 (a) the electronic gazette; or
11 (b) another way the responsible authority for the public document
12 reasonably considers is sufficient to bring its purport to the notice
13 of the public or those likely to be affected by it.
14 (2) If provision is made under subsection (1), the public document’s citation 15 and commencement provisions commence when the public document is 16 made.

17 27 Time of commencement

- 18 If a public document commences on a particular day, it commences —
19 (a) if it provides for a particular time on that day for it to commence, 20 at that time; or
21 (b) otherwise, at the start of that day.

22 28 Commencement of amendment of uncommenced public document

- 23 (1) This section applies if a public document (the “amending document”)
24 amends a public document that has not commenced.
25 (2) The amendment of the uncommenced document does not of itself
26 commence the document.
27 (3) The amendment made under the amending document commences when 28 the provision amended commences.

29 DIVISION 2 — STATUTORY DOCUMENTS: TYNWALD PROCEDURES

30 29 Meaning of “Tynwald procedure” followed by certain words

- 31 (1) This section defines the words “Tynwald procedure” if they — 32 (a) are —
33 (i) included in the text of a provision that empowers the 34 making of a statutory document; or

- (ii) expressed in a way to indicate they apply to such a provision; and
- (b) are followed by one of the following words or phrases –
- (i) “approval required”;
- (ii) “affirmative”;
- (iii) “negative”;
- (iv) “laying only”.

- (2) The words mean that one of the procedures set out in sections 30, 31, 32 and 34 apply to any statutory document made under that provision.

Examples::

1. The following words appear at the end of a section creating a regulation-making power:

“Tynwald procedure – approval required.”.

The words mean that that the procedure set out in section 30 apply to any regulations made under that provision.

2. The following words appear at the end of a subsection divided into paragraphs (a) and (b) (but not at the end of the section in question) and each of paragraphs (a) and (b) contain a different order-making power:

“Tynwald procedure –

(a) for paragraph (a) - negative

(b) for paragraph (b) – laying only.”.

The words mean that the procedure set out in section 32 applies to any orders made under paragraph (a) and the procedure set out in section 34 applies to any orders made under paragraph (b).

30 “Approval required”

- (1) This section applies to a statutory document only if its authorising legislation –
- (a) includes or applies the phrase “Tynwald procedure – approval required” in the manner described in section 29; or
- (b) provides that this section applies to the document.
- (2) The document cannot come into operation until it is approved by Tynwald.

31 “Affirmative”

- (1) This section applies to a statutory document only if its authorising legislation –
- (a) includes or applies the phrase “Tynwald procedure – affirmative” in the manner described in section 29; or

- 1 (b) provides that this section applies to the document.
- 2 (2) The responsible authority for the document must cause the document to 3 be laid before Tynwald for approval as soon as practicable after it is 4 made.
- 5 (3) If Tynwald at the sitting at which it was laid or the next subsequent
6 sitting fails to approve the document it ceases to have effect.

7 32 “Negative”

- 8 (1) This section applies to a statutory document only if its authorising
9 legislation —
- 10 (a) includes or applies the phrase “Tynwald procedure – negative”
11 in the manner described in section 29; or
- 12 (b) provides that this section applies to the document.
- 13 (2) The responsible authority for the document must cause the document to 14 be laid before Tynwald as soon as practicable after it is made.
- 15 (3) If Tynwald at the sitting at which it was laid or the next subsequent 16 sitting resolves that the document is to be annulled it ceases to have 17 effect.

18 33 Effect of statutory document ceasing to have effect

- 19 (1) For sections 31 and 32 if the statutory document ceases to have effect as a 20 result of Tynwald’s failing to approve it or resolving to annul it as the 21 case may be —
- 22 (a) the document is taken to have been revoked at the end of the last 23 day on which it could have been approved or at the time the 24 resolution to annul it is passed, as the case may be;
- 25 (b) as if there had been a further exercise of the same powers 26 revoking it; and
- 27 (c) any Manx legislation amended or repealed by the document is 28 revived on the passing of the resolution.
- 29 (2) Other than as provided in subsection (1), the revocation —
- 30 (a) does not affect the operation of section 58 (saving of operation of 31 amended and repealed Manx legislation) on the document;
- 32 (b) does not prevent the exercise of the same power under which the 33 document was made for another statutory document for the same
34 or substantially the same matter.

35 34 “Laying only”

- 36 (1) This section applies to a statutory document if its authorising
37 legislation —

- 1 (a) includes or applies the phrase “Tynwald procedure – laying
2 only” in the manner described in section 29; or
3 (b) provides that this section applies to the document.
- 4 (2) The responsible authority for the document must cause the document to
5 be laid before Tynwald as soon as practicable after it is made.

6 35 Power to change one procedure to another

- 7 (1) Tynwald may resolve that a statutory document other than rules of court
8 that is subject to any of the Tynwald procedures described in sections 30,
9 31, 32 and 34 be subject instead to one of the other procedure mentioned
10 in any of those sections.
- 11 (2) The Council of Ministers may by order amend the authorising legislation
12 to give effect to the resolution.
13 Tynwald procedure - negative.

14 36 Default procedure is laying only

- 15 (1) This section applies if the authorising legislation for a statutory 16 document does not make provision for a Tynwald procedure as 17 described in section 29 to apply to the document.
- 18 (2) The procedure set out in section 34(2) applies to the document unless it 19 expires before the next sitting of Tynwald.
- 20 (3) A failure to comply with that section does not affect the validity of the 21 document, or if it has expired, its former validity.
- 22 (4) However, if the section is not complied with, the responsible authority
23 for the document must –
24 (a) give the President of Tynwald a written explanation for the non-25 compliance; and
26 (b) cause the document to be laid before Tynwald as soon as 27 practicable.

28 DIVISION 3 – MISCELLANEOUS

29 37 Correction of statutory document after laying before Tynwald

- 30 (1) If it appears to a Minister (including the Chief Minister) that a statutory 31 document that has been laid before Tynwald contains an error the 32 Minister may give a notice to the President of Tynwald (“a correction 33 notice”) setting out the text of any correction subject to which the 34 document is to be read.
- 35 (2) However, a correction notice may be given only if –

- 1 (a) in the case of a statutory document to which section 30 or section
2 31 applies, Tynwald has not yet approved the document;
- 3 (b) in the case of a statutory document to which section 32 applies,
4 the time for consideration of any resolution to annul the 5 document has not expired; and
- 6 (c) in the case of a statutory document to which section 32 or section 7 34 applies, the document has not commenced.
- 8 (3) The President must decide, after consulting the Clerk of Tynwald, 9 whether to accept a correction notice.
- 10 (4) The President must not accept a correction notice unless satisfied that,
11 disregarding changes to the original document which are only 12 consequential upon a change specified below, it does only one or more of 13 the following—
- 14 (a) corrects an incorrect citation or commencement date for the 15 document;
- 16 (b) corrects an error of grammar, spelling or syntax;
- 17 (c) inserts a citation or commencement date in the document;
- 18 (d) corrects a cross-reference in the document (whether to a provision 19 of the document or an external document) which is obviously 20 incorrect;
- 21 (e) corrects a reference to the Tynwald procedure applying to the 22 document.
- 23 (5) Once a correction notice has been accepted the statutory document is to 24 be treated for all purposes as if it had been made in the corrected form.

25 38 Presumption of validity of public document

- 26 (1) It is presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that all conditions and 27 steps required for making a public document have been satisfied and 28 taken and consequently a public document must be judicially noticed as 29 such.
- 30 (2) However, subsection (1) does not affect the application of a requirement 31 under the authorising legislation for a statutory document that it must 32 not be made or is of no effect unless a particular step has been taken.

PART 4 – ALL MANX LEGISLATION

DIVISION 1 – NUMBERING, CITATION AND DISTRIBUTION

39 Numbering of Acts

- (1) The Clerk of Tynwald must give a number to each Act within 7 days of its announcement day.
- (2) The numbering must –
 - (a) be consecutive according to the Act’s announcement day (starting from the beginning of each year);
 - (b) have the prefix “AT” (being an abbreviation for “Act of Tynwald”), starting with “AT 1” for each year.
- (3) If more than one Act has the same announcement day –
 - (a) the numbering is to be in the order of when the Bill for each Act was last considered by the Council or the Keys; and
 - (b) the Act that was so considered earlier is to receive the earlier number.
- (4) All Acts in operation immediately before this section commences are, on the commencement, taken to have been numbered by year under subsections (2) and (3).
- (5) In an Act or a document, a reference to a numbered chapter for an Act (other than as a provision of the Act) is taken to be a reference to its numbering by year under this section.

40 Numbering of statutory documents

- (1) The Clerk of Tynwald must give a number for each statutory document.
- (2) The numbering must –
 - (a) be consecutive according to the calendar year in which statutory documents are made; and
 - (b) have the prefix “SD”, followed by the calendar year in which it is given the number followed by the number given to the statutory document.

Example: The first statutory document numbered in 2015 will be SD 2015/1.

41 Citation of Manx legislation

- (1) An Act passed after the commencement of this Act may be cited by its short title or by reference to its year and number.

- 1 (2) If the short title or citation of an Act is amended, a reference in Manx
2 legislation or a non-legislative public document to the short title or year
3 and number is a reference to the Act as so amended.
- 4 (3) A statutory document may be cited by the title provided for in the 5 document or by reference to its year and number.
- 6 (4) If the title or citation of a statutory document is amended, a reference in 7 Manx legislation or a non-legislative public document to its title or year
8 and number is a reference to it as so amended.
- 9 (5) In this section—
- 10 “number”, for Manx legislation, means its number under this Division; and
- 11 “short title”, of an Act, includes a short title under the repealed Short Titles Act
12 1977 or the repealed Pre-Revestment Written Laws (Ascertainment) Act
13 1978, by which the Act may be cited.

14 42 Filing original and distributing copies

- 15 (1) The Clerk of Tynwald must, as soon as practicable after an Act is 16 promulgated —
- 17 (a) file the original of the Act in the Public Record Office; and
- 18 (b) give the Tynwald Library and the Attorney General a certified
19 copy of the original.
- 20 (2) The responsible authority for a statutory document must, as soon as 21 practicable after it is made and numbered under section 40 —
- 22 (a) file the original of the document in the Public Record Office;
- 23 (b) once any applicable Tynwald procedure has been complied with,
24 give the Tynwald Library and the Attorney General a certified
25 copy of the original.
- 26 (3) No fee is payable for the filing.
- 27 (4) The Chief Registrar must ensure an original mentioned in this section is 28 kept in the Public Record Office.
- 29 (5) In this section—
- 30 “certified copy”, of an original, includes a digital document that —
- 31 (a) includes all digital writing from which the original was produced;
- 32 (b) records all other writing on the original; and
- 33 (c) bears, or is accompanied by, a digital statement made, or 34 purporting to be made, by the Clerk of Tynwald and stating the 35 copy is a true copy of the document of which it purports to be a 36 copy;
- 37 “Public Record Office” includes a secure archive kept for the purposes of the 38 Public Record Office.

1 43 Electronic gazettal and arrangements for publication and sale

- 2 (1) The Attorney General must —
- 3 (a) make arrangements the Attorney General considers appropriate
- 4 for the publication and sale of Manx legislation; and
- 5 (b) cause Manx legislation to be published in an electronic gazette on
- 6 a website approved by the Attorney General for that purpose (the
- 7 “electronic gazette”).
- 8 (2) However, the Attorney General must consult with the Clerk of Tynwald
- 9 before making or changing the arrangements.
- 10 (3) The Attorney General must comply with subsection (1) for each piece of
- 11 Manx legislation as soon as practicable after receiving a certified copy of
- 12 it under section 42(1).
- 13 (4) The publication in the electronic gazette must be —
- 14 (a) a notice stating —
- 15 (i) for an Act, that Royal Assent to the Act has been
- 16 announced to Tynwald; or
- 17 (ii) for a statutory document, that the document has been
- 18 made; and
- 19 (b) either of the following about the Manx legislation —
- 20 (i) information in the notice about how copies of it may be
- 21 obtained; or
- 22 (ii) all of its text, with or without any other material the
- 23 Attorney General considers appropriate.

24 Note:

25 For the evidentiary value of the publication, see section 17A (proof of electronic gazette)

26 of the Evidence Act 1871.

- 27 (5) To avoid any doubt —
- 28 (a) the publication of an Act in the electronic gazette is in addition to
- 29 the requirements under Part 2, Division 1 for its promulgation;
- 30 and
- 31 (b) this section applies to all amending Acts and amending
- 32 provisions despite the fact that they will later expire under section
- 33 50.

- 34 (6) This section does not limit what else may be published in the electronic
- 35 gazette.

36 Note:

37 See also section 91 (existing Manx legislation: publication by a government authority).

44 Defence if Manx legislation not published

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding for an offence consisting of a contravention of any Manx legislation.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section it is a defence to the proceeding for the defendant to prove the legislation had not been published under section 43 on or before the day the alleged contravention happened.
- (3) This section does not apply to a proceeding for an offence if the provision the subject of the proceeding was enacted or made before this section commences.
- (4) To avoid any doubt, it is not a defence for the defendant to prove the Manx legislation had been published only electronically when the contravention happened.
- (5) The defence is not available if the person prosecuting proves reasonable steps were taken on before the day the alleged contravention happened by or for the relevant body, to bring its purport to the notice of —
- (a) the public;
 - (b) persons likely to be affected by it; or
 - (c) the defendant.
- Examples of reasonable steps:*
1. For paragraph (a), a newspaper publication circulating throughout the Island.
 2. For paragraph (b) or (c), giving all the persons or the defendant notice under Part 4, Division 5 (service of documents) of the Interpretation Act.
- (6) A certificate signed by the Attorney General stating the legislation was published under section 43 on a stated day is evidence of the publication.
- (7) This section does not affect a provision of this or other Manx legislation about the making, commencement or validity of Manx legislation.
- (8) In this section, “relevant body” means —
- (a) if the Manx legislation is an Act, any Department or Statutory Board administering the Act; or
 - (b) if the Manx legislation is a statutory document, the responsible authority for the document.

DIVISION 2 — AMENDMENTS: GENERAL

45 Principal and amending legislation to be read as one

Manx legislation and other Manx legislation amending it are to be read as one.

46 Placing insertion if not specified exactly

- (1) This section applies if an amending provision —
- (a) amends Manx legislation by inserting a provision (the “new provision”); but
 - (b) does not specify exactly where the new provision is to be inserted.
- (2) The new provision is to be inserted in the Manx legislation as follows —
- (a) for a Chapter, Part, Division, Subdivision, section, subsection, paragraph or sub-subparagraph, in the appropriate numerical, alphanumerical or alphabetical position;
 - (b) for a definition, in the appropriate numerical, alphanumerical or alphabetical position in the series of definitions in which it is to be inserted, as the case may be;
 - (c) for an example, note or penalty, at the end of the provision into which it is to be inserted; or
 - (d) otherwise, in the appropriate position.

Example for paragraph (a):

A section numbered “6AA” is to be inserted into Manx legislation with an existing sequence of sections “section 6, section 6A, section 6B”. Section 6AA must be inserted between sections 6A and 6B.

- (3) In working out the appropriate position, regard may be had to —
- (a) the new provision’s number;
 - (b) the heading of the amending provision;
 - (c) other amendments in the relevant amending Manx legislation, including the order of amendments;
 - (d) anything else in the amending provision or amended provision; and
 - (e) current drafting practice.
- (4) For this section —
- (a) a reference to a type of provision includes a provision of a statutory document called something else that would, if the amending provision was in an Act, be called a provision of that type; and
 - (b) in Manx legislation divided otherwise than into sections, a reference to a section or subsection is a reference to a provision corresponding to —
 - (i) for an Act, a section; or
 - (ii) for a statutory document, a provision that would, if the amending provision was in an Act, be called a section.
- (5) In this section, “insert” includes relocate.

1 47 Amendment must be made wherever possible

- 2 (1) If an amending provision amends Manx legislation by doing any of the 3 following, the amendment is taken to have been made wherever it is
4 possible to make it in the provision —
5 (a) omitting a word;
6 (b) substituting a word for another word; or
7 (c) inserting a word before or after a particular word.
8 (2) For subsection (1)(b), it does not matter whether the omitted or 9 substituted word is in upper or lower case or what font or type it is in.

10 Example:

11 The X Amendment Act substitutes the word “cat” for “dog” in section 20 of the Y Act,
12 without referring to any particular provision of that section. In that section, “dog”
13 occurs once in the heading (starting in upper case), 3 times in subsection (1) and twice 14 in a note (in a different font). The amendment substitutes “cat” for “dog” in each of 15 those occurrences.

16 48 Automatic consequential amendments

- 17 (1) If Manx legislation substitutes a reference to a person or body for another 18 person or body, a pronoun referring to the substituted person or body is,
19 if appropriate, taken to be amended to accord with the substitution.
20 (2) If Manx legislation is amended, it is taken to include all necessary 21 consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or 22 another kind.

23 Examples:

24 1. If the following provision were to be amended by omitting paragraph (c), the 25 amendment is taken to include:

26 (a) inserting the word “and” at the end of paragraph (a);

27 (b) replacing the emboldened semicolon with the bracketed full stop; and

28 (c) omitting the word “and” at the end of paragraph (b)—

29 “5. A notice is to —

30 (a) be signed by the chairperson;

31 (b) state the period within which it is to be complied with; [.] and 32 (c) state where it is to be complied with.”.

33 2. If a section not divided into subsections is amended by inserting a subsection at the 34 end, the existing provision is numbered as subsection (1).

35 3. If a section divided into subsections is amended by inserting another subsection given 36 a new number (for example, a subsection (1A) to be inserted after subsection (1)),
37 subsection (2) does not require the renumbering of subsections after the inserted 38 subsection because such renumbering is neither necessary nor consequential to the 39 insertion.

1 4. If a provision heading is amended, a reference in any Manx legislation to the heading
2 is amended to mention the heading as amended.

- 3 (3) An amendment under this section commences when the relevant
4 substitution or amendment mentioned in subsection (1) or (2)
5 commences.

6 49 Relocations: meaning unaffected

- 7 (1) This section applies if a provision of Manx legislation is relocated (with 8 or without change) to a different place in the same legislation or to 9 different legislation.
- 10 (2) The operation or meaning of the provision is not affected only because of 11 the provision's relocation.
- 12 (3) Without limiting subsection (2), if before its relocation the provision was 13 to be interpreted in a particular way, it is to be interpreted in that way in 14 its new location.

15 DIVISION 3 – REPEALS AND AMENDMENTS

16 SUBDIVISION 1 – GENERAL

17 50 Time repeal takes effect

- 18 (1) This section applies if Manx legislation is repealed on a certain day (the 19 “repeal day”).
- 20 (2) The repeal takes effect at the following time on the repeal day –
- 21 (a) if the legislation is remade on the repeal day (with or without 22 change), when the repeal day starts; or
- 23 (b) otherwise, at midnight.
- 24 (3) In this section, “repealed”, on a certain day, includes where the 25 legislation has –
- 26 (a) expired on that day; or
- 27 (b) otherwise ceased to have effect on that day.

28 51 Expiry provisions take effect as a repeal

29 If Manx legislation (the “expiring legislation”) provides that it or other Manx 30 legislation (the “expired legislation”) is to expire, the expired legislation is 31 repealed to the extent of the expiry provided for under the expiring legislation.

1 SUBDIVISION 2 – AUTOMATIC REPEAL OF SPENT AMENDMENTS

2 52 “Amending legislation”

3 “Amending legislation” is Manx legislation the text of which consists only of 4 any or all provisions of the following types –

- 5 (a) a preamble or recital (however described);
6 (b) a provision about its citation, or the citation of any Manx
7 legislation it amends;
8 (c) a provision about its commencement;
9 (d) a provision about its purposes or of any of its provisions;
10 (e) a provision amending or repealing Manx legislation (including a 11 provision identifying the amended or repealed legislation);
12 (f) a provision about the renumbering of Manx legislation; or 13 (g) a savings provision, transitional provision or validating provision.

14 Example of amending legislation:

15 The Manx Museum and National Trust (Amendment) Act 1986. It commenced and was 16 promulgated in 1986. Apart from amending provisions, that Act consists only of its 17 citation provision and a transitional provision (section 1(4)).

18 Note:

19 A long title (and certain other material) is not included in the text of, and is therefore is 20 not part of, Manx legislation. See section 22 of the Interpretation Act.

21 53 “Amending provision”

22 (1) An “amending provision” is a provision of Manx legislation the text of 23 which provision only amends or repeals Manx legislation, including, for 24 example –

- 25 (a) a provision (for example, a Schedule) that only identifies the 26 legislation amended or repealed; or
27 (b) another provision (for example, a part heading) that only
28 identifies (or groups) provisions amended or repealed.

29 Example of a provision for paragraph (b):

30 Part 8 (repeals and amendments).

31 (2) To remove any doubt, a provision of amending legislation inserting a 32 savings provision, transitional provision or validating provision into 33 principal legislation is an amending provision only of the amending
34 legislation and not of the principal legislation.

35 (3) In this section, “principal legislation” means Manx legislation that is not
36 amending legislation.

1 54 Repeal of existing spent amendments

- 2 (1) This section applies to amending legislation or an amending provision
3 only if the legislation or provision commenced before this section
4 commences.
- 5 (2) The amending legislation is automatically repealed on the day after the 6 latest of the following to happen —
- 7 (a) the commencement of this section;
 - 8 (b) if it is an Act, its promulgation; or
 - 9 (c) either of the following —
 - 10 (i) the commencement of all of its provisions; or
 - 11 (ii) when the last of its provisions that have not commenced
12 are omitted or no longer can commence.

13 Example:

14 The Manx Museum and National Trust (Amendment) Act 1986 (mentioned in the 15 example to section 52) will be repealed under this section on the day after this section 16 commences.

17 Note:

18 For repealed transitional provisions, see also section 59 (saving, transitional or 19 validating provision continues in effect).

- 20 (3) An amending provision is automatically repealed on the day after the 21 latest of the following to happen —
- 22 (a) the commencement of this section;
 - 23 (b) if it is in the text of an Act, the promulgation of the Act; or
 - 24 (c) the commencement of all, or of the last of, the amendments and 25 repeals made under the amending provision or to which it relates.

26 55 Automatic expiry of future amendments

- 27 (1) This section applies to amending legislation or an amending provision 28 only if the legislation or provision commences on or after this section 29 commences.
- 30 (2) The amending legislation automatically expires on the day after the later
31 of the following to happen —
- 32 (a) if it is an Act, its promulgation; or
 - 33 (b) either of the following —
 - 34 (i) the commencement of all of its provisions; or
 - 35 (ii) when the last of its provisions that have not commenced
36 are omitted or can no longer commence.

37 Example for subparagraph (ii):

1 The ABC Act 2015 includes a provision amending the XYZ Act 2000. Before the
 2 provision commences, the XYZ Act 2000 is repealed. The provision can, therefore, no
 3 longer commence.

- 4 (3) The amending provision automatically expires on the day after the later
 5 of the following to happen —
 6 (a) if it is in the text of an Act, the Act’s promulgation; or 7 (b) the commencement of all, or of the last of, the amendments and 8 repeals made under it or to which it relates.

9 Examples for section:

10 1. Other than provisions about its citation and commencement, the only provisions of 11 the Hypothetical Amendment Act 2015 are amending ones. The citation and 12 commencement provisions commenced under section 18 (automatic commencement of 13 citation and commencement provisions). The amending provisions commenced on a date
 14 fixed under an order, 12 April 2016. The Act automatically expires under this section on 15 the day after all of its provisions have commenced, namely 13 April 2016.

16 2. The Example Act 2015 contains provisions for a new licensing scheme. It also amends
 17 several Acts and repeals others. Because it contains the scheme provisions, it is not 18 amending legislation. Therefore, the Act does not automatically expire.

19 SUBDIVISION 3 — OPERATION OF REPEALS AND AMENDMENTS

20 56 Automatic repeals

- 21 (1) A repeal under Subdivision 2 has effect for all purposes, including, for 22 example, the other provisions of this Part about repeals.
 23 (2) This section does not limit another provision of this Part.

24 57 No revival if amendment or repeal repealed

- 25 (1) An amendment or repeal of Manx legislation operates once and for all.
 26 (2) In particular, repealed Manx legislation is not revived if the provision 27 that repealed it is itself repealed.
 28 (3) The repeal of amending legislation or an amending provision does not —
 29 (a) revive the Manx legislation it amended as it operated before the 30 amendments commenced;
 31 (b) revive anything not in operation or existing when the amendment
 32 or repeal took effect; or
 33 (c) affect the continuing operation of the amendments.

34 Note:

35 See also section 94 (declaratory provision for previous amendments and repeals).

- 36 (4) Subsections (1) and (2) also apply for any amendment or repeal of the 37 common law under a repealing or amending provision.

1 (5) This section does not limit another provision of this Part and is in
2 addition to any provision of the repealing or amending legislation.

3 (6) In this section, “common law” includes a procedure or rule at common
4 law or in equity.

5 58 Saving of operation of amended and repealed Manx legislation

6 (1) This section applies if Manx legislation is amended or repealed.

7 (2) The amendment or repeal does not affect any of the following —

8 (a) the previous operation of the legislation or anything done, begun
9 or suffered under it;

10 (b) an existing capacity or status acquired under the legislation before
11 the amendment or repeal;

12 (c) an existing immunity, liability, privilege, obligation, right or title 13 acquired, accrued or incurred under the legislation (an “existing 14 accrued matter”);

15 (d) a penalty incurred for an offence against the legislation (also an 16 “existing accrued matter”); or

17 (e) a procedure relating to an existing accrued matter.

18 (3) The following may take place for an existing accrued matter as if the 19 amendment or repeal had not happened —

20 (a) carrying out a procedure relating to it;

21 (b) enforcing it; or

22 (c) imposing a penalty.

23 (4) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), the amendment or repeal does 24 not affect —

25 (a) the proof of anything that has happened; or

26 (b) any right, privilege or liability saved by the legislation.

27 (5) To remove any doubt, the following apply —

28 (a) this section is in addition to any provision of the legislation under 29 which the amendment or repeal was made;

30 (b) this section does not limit the operation of —

31 (i) another provision of this Part; or

32 (ii) any express savings provision in the legislation relating to 33 the amendment or repeal;

34 (c) if the legislation is repealed, this section does not continue the 35 operation of any public document made under it (but this is 36 subject to section 63); and

37 (d) paragraph (c) does not affect any continued operation given to the 38 public document under a savings or transitional provision.

- 1 (6) In this section —
- 2 “carrying out”, a procedure, includes starting, exercising, continuing or
- 3 completing it;
- 4 “liability” includes liability to a penalty for an offence against the legislation;
- 5 “penalty” includes punishment and forfeiture;
- 6 “privilege” includes immunity;
- 7 “procedure” means an investigation, proceeding or other action for a remedy;
- 8 and
- 9 “right” includes capacity, interest, status and title.

10 59 Savings, transitional or validating provision continues in effect

- 11 (1) The continuing operation of a savings provision, transitional provision or
- 12 validating provision is not affected only because it is repealed.
- 13 (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the provision is a savings
- 14 provision, transitional provision or validating provision only because of
- 15 amendments the provision made to other Manx legislation.
- 16 (3) This section does not limit another provision of this Part and is in
- 17 addition to any provision of the Manx legislation under which the repeal
- 18 is made.

19 DIVISION 4 — DEFAULT SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

20 60 Application of Division

- 21 (1) This Division applies if Manx legislation or a provision of Manx
- 22 legislation (the “old legislation”) has been repealed and re-enacted, with
- 23 or without change, (the “new legislation”), including, for example,
- 24 under a consolidation.
- 25 (2) However, this Division applies only to the extent —
- 26 (a) it is consistent with the new legislation; and
- 27 (b) that something provided for under this Division can be done
- 28 consistently with, or adapted to, the new legislation.
- 29 (3) This Division is subject to section 58 but, for the sake of clarity, that
- 30 section does not limit the application of section 63 to a statutory
- 31 document made under the old legislation to the extent that it could have
- 32 been made under the new legislation.

33 61 Interpretation for Division

- 34 (1) In this Division —

1 “corresponding provision”, of the old legislation and the new legislation to 2 each other, means any or all provisions of the other that is (or are) the 3 same as, substantially the same as or expresses the same idea as the 4 other, even though a different form of words is used;

5 “done” includes issued, given or made; and

6 “thing” includes an authorisation, consent, decision, direction, matter, notice,
7 public document, request or transaction.

8 (2) In this Division, a reference to enforcing something includes starting or 9 continuing a proceeding, or pursuing another remedy, for that thing.

10 62 Existing appointments continue

11 The appointment of a person under the old legislation continues for the 12 corresponding provisions of the new legislation for the rest of the period for 13 which the person was appointed, as if the person had been appointed under the 14 new legislation.

15 63 Existing securities and things

16 (1) A bond, guarantee or other security of a continuing nature under the old 17 legislation remains in operation for the corresponding provisions of the 18 new legislation.

19 (2) Information, documents and other things done or used under the old
20 legislation may continue to be used under the corresponding provisions 21 of the new legislation.

22 64 Existing proceedings

23 A proceeding started under the old legislation may be continued under the 24 corresponding provisions of the new legislation.

25 65 Existing penalties and accrued and accruing rights

26 (1) The procedure under the new legislation applies for enforcing a penalty
27 incurred, or a right acquired, under the old legislation.

28 (2) If —

29 (a) corresponding provisions of the old legislation and the new 30 legislation both have a penalty;

31 (b) the corresponding penalty under the new legislation mitigates or 32 reduces the penalty; and

33 (c) a penalty for something that happened before the old legislation’s
34 repeal is to be imposed or adjudged after the repeal,

35 the penalty must be mitigated or reduced to reflect the corresponding 36 penalty.

- 1 (3) In this section, “penalty” includes forfeiture and punishment.

2 66 Things done under the old legislation

3 A thing done under the old legislation —

- 4 (a) has the same effect under the corresponding provisions of the 5 new legislation as it had under the old legislation; and 6 (b) may be enforced as if it had been done under the corresponding 7 provision.

8 67 Transition of references in other legislation

- 9 (1) A general reference in other legislation to the old legislation is a reference 10 to the new legislation generally.
- 11 (2) A reference in other legislation to a discontinued body is a reference to 12 its successor.
- 13 (3) If, on the repeal, a body is not discontinued but its name is changed, a 14 reference in other legislation to its name before the repeal is a reference 15 to its name after the repeal.
- 16 (4) In this section —
- 17 “discontinued”, for a body, means that it was created or continued under the 18 old legislation and that, on the repeal, it ceased to exist or underwent a 19 change in legal personality;
- 20 “other legislation” means Manx legislation other than the new legislation;
- 21 “repeal” means the repeal of the old legislation; and
- 22 “successor”, for a discontinued body, means the body that, under the new 23 legislation, performs the same, or substantially the same, functions that 24 the discontinued body performed before the repeal.

25 68 Transition of specific references for things happening after repeal

- 26 (1) This section applies for a thing happening after the repeal of the old
27 legislation if Manx legislation other than the new legislation refers to a 28 particular provision of the old legislation (the “old provision”).
- 29 (2) The reference is to any corresponding provisions of the new legislation 30 relating to the same or similar subject matter as the old legislation.
- 31 (3) If there is no corresponding provision, the reference is to the old
32 legislation, but only so far as is necessary to give effect to the old
33 legislation in the reference.

DIVISION 5 — MISCELLANEOUS

69 Amendment of statutory document by Manx enactment

If an Act amends a statutory document, the document may be amended or repealed as if the amendment had been made under another statutory document of that type.

PART 5 – REPRINTS

DIVISION 1 — GENERAL

70 Attorney General’s reprint power

- (1) The Attorney General may, under this Part, authorise and publish a version of —
 - (a) any Manx legislation showing all of its text; and
 - (b) UK legislation or another law as that law applies to the Island.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the Manx legislation —
 - (a) was enacted, made, announced, printed, published or promulgated before or after this section commences; or
 - (b) has been amended.
- (3) The Attorney General may also authorise and publish a notice (a “reprint correction notice”) correcting an error made in a publication under subsection (1).
- (4) A publication under subsection (1) and any relevant reprint correction notice for it from time to time is a “reprint” of the Manx legislation or other law.
- (5) The Manx legislation the subject of a reprint is the “reprinted legislation” for the reprint.

71 Delegation of functions

- (1) The Attorney General may delegate the Attorney General’s functions under this Part to the “Chief Legislative Drafter”.
- (2) The Attorney General or the Chief Legislative Drafter may nominate any other person in the Attorney General’s Chambers to carry out the Chief Legislative Drafter’s functions under this Act.

1 72 Reprints

- 2 (1) The Attorney General may publish reprints either in hard copy or 3 electronically, including, for example, by publication on an approved
4 website.
- 5 (2) The Attorney General may decide to make a reprint (whether in hard 6 copy or electronic) an official reprint—
- 7 (a) in the case of a hard copy reprint, by declaring, before the text of 8 the reprinted legislation starts, that the reprint is an official
9 reprint; and
- 10 (b) in the case of an electronic reprint, by including in, or logically
11 associating with, the electronic file containing the data comprising 12 the reprint, a declaration that the reprint is an official reprint.
- 13 (3) A printed document identifiable as an official reprint must be treated as 14 an official reprint, unless the contrary is proved.
- 15 (4) The Attorney General must ensure an electronic official reprint is in an 16 approved format and can be accessed only at, or downloaded only from, 17 an approved website.
- 18 (5) Any reprint correction notice for an electronic official reprint must be 19 electronically accessible together with the reprint.
- 20 (6) An electronic official reprint so accessed or downloaded must be treated 21 as an official reprint, unless the contrary is proved.
- 22 (7) In this section, “approved” means approved by the Attorney General.

23 73 Status of official reprint and certain printouts of official reprints

- 24 (1) This section applies for Manx legislation reprinted as an official reprint.
- 25 (2) This section also applies to a document purporting to be a printout of 26 any of the following under section 72 from an approved website —
- 27 (a) all of an electronic official reprint; or
- 28 (b) a particular provision of reprinted legislation from an electronic 29 official reprint, together with the declaration under section 72(2)
30 and the notes required under section 78 (authorisation and reprint 31 date notes) for the reprint.
- 32 (3) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the reprint or printout is —
- 33 (a) taken to correctly state all of the text of the legislation or provision
34 and to include all amendments of it that commenced on or before
35 the reprint date;
- 36 (b) evidence that any changes made to the legislation or provision in 37 the reprint were made under this Part; and
- 38 (c) admissible in evidence in any proceeding.

- 1 (4) A court or person acting judicially must take judicial notice of the reprint 2 or printout.
- 3 (5) This section does not apply for a repositioning or inclusion of a section
4 heading under paragraph 1 to Schedule 1.

5 DIVISION 2 – WHAT REPRINTS MUST AND MAY INCLUDE

6 SUBDIVISION 1 – AMENDMENTS

7 74 Commenced amendments

- 8 (1) A reprint must show all of the reprinted legislation as in operation on a 9 stated day (the reprint’s “reprint date”) including all amendments to it
10 that commenced on or before the reprint date.
- 11 (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a reprint showing any uncommenced 12 amendments to the reprinted legislation, so long as –
- 13 (a) they are shown in a way that differentiates them from the 14 legislation’s text; and
- 15 (b) a note is included in a suitable place stating the amendments have 16 not commenced and that the note is not included in the 17 legislation’s text.

18 Example for paragraph (a):

19 By highlighting or italicising the uncommenced amendments.

20 SUBDIVISION 2 – REPRINT CHANGES

21 75 Permitted changes and corrections

22 A reprint may include a change or correction to the text of reprinted legislation
23 as provided for under Schedule 1 (each a “reprint change”).

24 76 Restrictions on making reprint changes

25 A reprint change –

- 26 (a) may be made only if the Attorney General has approved it after 27 consultation with the Clerk of Tynwald; and
- 28 (b) must not be made if, were it to be enacted, it would change the 29 effect of the text or would renumber or relocate a provision.

30 77 Effect of reprint change

- 31 (1) If a reprint change is made for a reprint, the reprint has effect as if the 32 change had been expressly made under an amending provision that 33 commenced immediately before the reprint date.

- 1 (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply for a repositioning or inclusion
2 of a section heading under paragraph 1 of Schedule 1.

3 SUBDIVISION 3 — REPRINT NOTES

4 78 Authorisation and reprint date notes

- 5 (1) Each official reprint must, before the text of the reprinted legislation
6 starts, include notes stating —
7 (a) that the Attorney General has authorised the reprint as an official
8 reprint; and
9 (b) its reprint date.
10 (2) The notes are evidence of the matters they state unless the contrary is 11 proved.

12 Note:

13 The text of Manx legislation does not include a note under this Part. See section 22(1)(e)
14 (excluded material) of the Interpretation Act.

15 79 Endnotes

- 16 (1) A reprint must include endnotes stating — 17 (a) the amending provision under which any amendment of the 18 reprinted legislation was made;
19 (b) details of any corrections or changes made under Subdivision 2;
20 and
21 (c) anything else the Attorney General considers is necessary or 22 desirable to help users of the reprinted legislation.
23 (2) Endnotes must be included after the end of the text of the reprinted
24 legislation.
25 (3) Endnotes are evidence of the matters they state unless the contrary is 26 proved.

27 80 Notes to aid users

- 28 (1) A reprint may include other notes the Attorney General considers 29 necessary or desirable to help users of the reprinted legislation.

30 Example of possible other notes:

31 Notes about savings, transitional or validating provisions continued in effect under 32 section 59 after the relevant amending Act or provision is repealed.

- 33 (2) The notes —
34 (a) must be shown in a way that differentiates them from the text of 35 the reprinted legislation;

DIVISION 2 — DRAFTING POWERS

84 Powers

- (1) Subject to section 85, in drafting a consolidation the Board has the following powers —
- (a) update references to UK legislation to reflect remade or replaced UK legislation or changed names or titles;
 - (b) make changes or corrections that, under Part 5, may be made in a reprint;
 - (c) change a section heading repositioned or inserted in a reprint under paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 so it will be in the consolidated legislation’s text;
 - (d) make changes to omit or shorten provisions in reliance on this Act or the Interpretation Act;
 - (e) replace older forms of legislative expression with forms that reflect current drafting practice, ensure consistency of expression or to shorten or simplify a phrase or sentence;
 - (f) rearrange or update legislative structure to make it consistent with current drafting practice;
 - (g) make numbering or renumbering provisions;
 - (h) omit any or all of the following—

 - (iii) words of enactment; or
 - (iv) words it considers are obsolete or redundant;
 - (i) change words (including the name or title of an office or officer already established) to make them gender neutral;
 - (j) change spelling, punctuation or layout to make it consistent with current drafting practice;
 - (k) correct conjunctions or disjunctives at the end of provisions or change them to make them consistent with current drafting practice;
 - (l) change an expression of date, amount of money, number, time or unit of measurement or other matter or idea (the “item”) so that the item is expressed consistently with current drafting practice;
 - (m) include consequential, supplementary, incidental, savings, transitional or validating provisions it considers appropriate because of —
 - (i) combining, splitting or relocating provisions of the existing legislation; or

- 1 (ii) the enactment of the consolidation; or
- 2 (n) do anything else that appears necessary or desirable to the Board
- 3 to improve the drafting of the existing legislation or make it
- 4 consistent with current drafting practice.
- 5 (2) In exercising the powers, the Board must consult, in the way it considers
- 6 appropriate, with the Department, Statutory Board or other body that
- 7 administers each Act in question and any other person or body the Board
- 8 considers appropriate.

9 85 Consolidation must not change existing legislation's effect

- 10 (1) A consolidation must not change the existing legislation's effect.
- 11 (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply for minor amendments the
- 12 Board considers are necessary or desirable to —
- 13 (a) clarify Tynwald's intent in enacting the existing legislation; or
- 14 (b) reconcile inconsistencies between its provisions.

15 DIVISION 3 — ENACTMENT PROCEDURES

16 86 Board certification of draft

- 17 (1) After finishing a draft of a consolidation, the Board must certify in
- 18 writing to the Clerk of Tynwald that it has been drafted under this Part.
- 19 (2) A Bill purporting to be a consolidation must not be introduced into
- 20 Tynwald without the certificate.

21 87 Abridged Bill procedure

- 22 (1) This section applies on the certification under section 86, of a
- 23 consolidation, despite any Act, law or procedure to the contrary.
- 24 (2) The consent of the Council of Ministers is required for the introduction of
- 25 the consolidation into Tynwald as a Bill.
- 26 (3) The consolidation —
- 27 (a) need not pass through any stages of the Council or the Keys; and
- 28 (b) is taken to have been passed by the Council and the Keys if it is
- 29 approved at a sitting of Tynwald Court.
- 30 (4) However, the consolidation must not be approved unless at least one
- 31 sitting of Tynwald has passed since its introduction into Tynwald.
- 32 (5) An amendment to the consolidation may be moved only —
- 33 (a) with the leave of the President of Tynwald; or
- 34 (b) if the Board has certified in writing that the amendment is
- 35 necessary to correct an error.

88 Board certification to Governor if Bill passed

- (1) If a consolidation is approved by Tynwald Court, the Board must certify in writing to the Governor —
- (a) that the Bill as passed is a consolidation prepared under this Part; and
 - (b) one of the following —
 - (i) that the Bill does not change the existing legislation's effect;
 - (ii) that any changes to the effect are only minor amendments of a type mentioned in section 85(2); or
 - (iii) that, because of amendments moved before Tynwald Court, the effect was changed, but that the Bill does not otherwise change the existing legislation's effect.
- (2) If subsection (1)(b)(ii) or (iii) applies, the certification must also identify the amendments and all relevant provisions of the consolidation and the existing legislation.

PART 7 – OTHER PROVISIONSDIVISION 1 – GENERAL*89 Delegations by Council of Ministers

- (1) The Council of Ministers may delegate to the Chief Minister its powers under this Act to make public documents.
- (2) The delegation may be —
- (a) general or limited; and
 - (b) revoked, wholly or partly, by the Council of Ministers.
- (3) A power so delegated may be exercised only under any conditions the Council of Ministers imposes on the exercise of the power.

90 General regulation-making powers

- (1) The Council of Ministers may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The regulations may provide for consequential, incidental, supplemental or transitional matters the Council of Ministers considers —
- (a) are necessary or convenient for the purposes; or
 - (b) are not provided for, or not sufficiently provided for, under Division 2.
- (3) To allow the public to be able to ascertain what existing SDs are in operation, a provision of the regulations may repeal all existing SDs

1 except those in a stated list published on the website of the Attorney
2 General's Chambers.

- 3 (4) Before publishing the list, the Attorney General must —
4 (a) consult the Board and the Clerk of Tynwald; and
5 (b) conduct all enquires the Attorney General considers are 6 reasonably necessary to discover all existing SDs.

- 7 (5) The list must include a statement that, in the Attorney General's view, it
8 is a complete list of all existing SDs.

9 Tynwald procedure – approval required.

- 10 (6) Subsections (3) to (5) and (7) and this subsection expire when any 11 provision made under subsection (3) commences.

- 12 (7) In this section, “existing SDs” means statutory documents in operation
13 when this section commences.

14 DIVISION 2 – SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONALS

15 91 Existing Manx legislation: publication by a government authority

- 16 (1) This section applies if Manx legislation passed before this section 17 commences requires (the “old requirement”) the publication by a
18 Government authority of a notice or other matter (the “matter”) in a 19 newspaper circulating in the Island.

- 20 (2) The legislation has effect as if it provided instead —
21 (a) for the publication of the matter in the electronic gazette; and 22 (b) if appropriate, that other reasonable steps must be taken to bring 23 the purport of matter to the attention of the public or of persons
24 likely to be affected by it.

25 Example of when paragraph (b) need not be complied with:

26 Everyone likely to be affected by the matter has already been given notice of it under Part
27 4, Division 5 (service of documents) of the Interpretation Act.

28 Example of other reasonable steps:

29 A newspaper publication for the number of times required under the old requirement.

29 legislation operated before the amendments concerned

SCHEDULE 1

[Section 75]

REPRINT CHANGES PERMITTED1 Inclusion of section headings to pre-commencement legislation

- (1) This paragraph applies if a section or other provision of Manx legislation —
 - (a) does not have a heading; but
 - (b) the legislation, as enacted and originally printed, had a marginal note relating to the provision that, under the repealed Interpretation Act 1976, was not included in the legislation's text.
- (2) A reprint of the legislation may —
 - (a) reposition (with or without change) the note so that it appears in the form of a heading to the provision; or
 - (b) insert a different heading to the provision that the Attorney General considers is more appropriate.
- (3) To remove any doubt, the repositioning of a note or the insertion of a heading does not mean that it is included in the text of the reprinted legislation.

2 Format changes

A reprint may include format changes to make the text of the reprinted legislation consistent with current drafting practice.

Examples:

1. Changing the setting out of provisions, tables and Schedules.
2. Changing typeface and type size.
3. Adding or removing bold, italics or similar textual attributes.
4. Adding or removing quotation marks and rules.
5. Changing the case of a letter or word.
6. For an Act, repositioning its announcement day or promulgation day.

3 Correction of minor errors

A reprint may correct a minor error including —

- (a) a typographical error;
- (b) a grammatical error;
- (c) an error of punctuation;

- (d) an error in a cross-reference to a provision of Manx legislation or UK legislation, including, for example, an incorrectly omitted reference; or
- (e) a numbering error.

Examples of specific minor errors:

1. If the word “license” is used as a noun, it may be replaced with “licence”.
2. In the following provision, the emboldened word may be omitted —
“The chairperson is to be the executive officer of the the Board.”.
3. In the following provision, the bracketed word may be inserted where shown —
“The chairperson is to be the executive officer of (the) Board.”.

4 Minor editorial changes

A reprint may make minor editorial changes.

Examples:

1. If there are 2 full stops at the end of a sentence, one of them may be omitted.
2. If an Act has a citation that includes a comma before or after a year in the citation, the citation or a reference to the Act may be given omitting the comma.
3. If an Act has a citation starting with the word “The” —
 - (a) if “The” is not part of a proper name, the citation may be given omitting the word; and
 - (b) if the context requires, the word “The” (with or without capitalisation, as appropriate) may be inserted immediately before the citation.

5 Changes because of transfer of functions order

A reprint may make changes to reflect an order under Schedule 2 to the Government Departments Act 1987 or section 5 of the Statutory Boards Act 1987.

6 Changes of reference under default savings and transitional provisions

A reprint may make a change of reference made under Part 4, Division 4, including for the repealed Acts mentioned in section 95.

7 Changes to correct order of definitions

- (1) A definition provision containing non-alphabetical or non-alphanumerical definitions may be rearranged so they are alphabetical or alphanumerical, as the case may be.
- (2) A definition provision containing definitions in a particular order may be rearranged in another order consistent with current drafting practice.
- (3) In this paragraph, “definition provision” means a provision containing a number of definitions.

8 Metrication changes

- (1) A reprint may change a reference in the reprinted legislation to an imperial unit of measurement to a reference to its corresponding metric unit of measurement.
- (2) If there is no exact corresponding metric equivalent to an imperial unit of measurement, the change may round up or round down the reference to its nearest metric equivalent.
- (3) However, subparagraph (2) does not apply if the rounding up or rounding down changes the effect of the reference.
- (4) In this paragraph, “unit” of measurement, means a unit of measurement of area, capacity, length, mass or weight as defined under Schedule 1 of the Weights and Measures Act 1989.
