

Statutory Document No. 168/95

THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1986

THE PEEL MARINE PARADE (PEVERIL CAMP COMMEMORATION) ORDER 1995

Coming into operation

2nd. May 1995

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Department of Transport by section 38(1) and (5) of the Highways Act 1986(a), and of all other enabling powers, the following Order is hereby made:-

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Peel Marine Parade (Peveril Camp Commemoration) Order 1995 and shall come into operation on the 2nd. May 1995.

Interpretation

2. In this Order -

"closure period" means from 9.00 a.m. on Tuesday, 2nd. May 1995 until the display and exhibition has ended and any highway gate, stands, barriers, decorations or other apparatus have been removed from the Scheduled road and official notification has been given in accordance with article 5 that this removal has been completed, or not later than 5.00 p.m. on Thursday, 31st. August 1995;

"display and exhibition" means a commemorative re-enactment of the Peveril Internment Camp which was closed in 1945;

"highway gate" means a point where a road or part of a road passes through a fence or other barrier by means of a gateway, irrespective of whether or not any gate is installed;

"promoter" means Peel Town Commissioners;

(a) 1986 c.17

"Scheduled road" means the road specified in the Schedule.

Closure of road and temporary regulation of traffic

3. During the closure period the Scheduled road shall be closed to, and the right of way thereover suspended for, all vehicular traffic other than-

- (a) a vehicle being used for the purpose of, or in connection with, the erection, maintenance or removal of apparatus mentioned in article 4, and
- (b) a vehicle which (as the case may be)-
 - (i) is passing along or across that part of the carriageway marked by the promoter for vehicles to pass along or across the Scheduled road,
 - (ii) is passing through that part of a highway gate provided in the carriageway by the promoter for vehicles to pass along or across the Scheduled road; or
 - (iii) is entering or leaving premises adjacent to the Scheduled road.

Erection of highway gate, stands, barriers, etc.

4. (1) Subject to paragraphs (2),(3),(4) and (5) the promoter may during the closure period-

- (a) cause to be erected and maintained one or more highway gates and associated barriers-
 - (i) to form the boundary between the Scheduled road and a road leading to it, or
 - (ii) to form a boundary between one part of the Scheduled road and another part of that road, or
 - (iii) otherwise in connection with the display and exhibition,

a highway gate extending across the width of the carriageway and part of the width of any footway or extending along a length of the carriageway, consisting of one or more gaps (which may include one or more movable barriers) which may be flanked by fixed barriers; and

- (b) cause barriers, stands, decorations or other apparatus to be erected and maintained on the Scheduled road; and
- (c) erect and maintain such barriers, signs and lighting along the length of or across the width of the Scheduled road and along the length of a road leading to the Scheduled road as appear to it, after consulting the Department, to be necessary for the direction, regulation and safety of any traffic.

(2) Pedestrians shall have access at all times, by means of a footway or part of a footway, to and along the Scheduled road and access to adjacent premises and the foreshore shall not be affected by this Order or by the erection of anything erected by virtue of this Order.

(3) Vehicular traffic shall have access at all times, by means of the carriageway or part of the carriageway, to and along the Scheduled road and to adjacent premises.

(4) Vehicular traffic may be directed as to its positioning in the carriageway of the road leading to a highway gate for the purpose of it having access to, along or across the Scheduled road through a gap which forms part of, or flanks, the highway gate.

(5) Pedestrians may be directed as to their positioning in a footway or across the carriageway of the road leading, in either case, to a highway gate for the purpose of them having access to, along or across the Scheduled road through a gap which forms part of, or flanks, a highway gate.

Duty of the Promoter

5. The promoter shall make such provision as the promoter considers to be expedient for giving official notice to the Department and the public of the opening of the Scheduled road to vehicular traffic at the end of the closure period.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order temporarily closes under section 38(1) and (5) of the Highways Act 1986 a short section of the eastern end of Marine Parade in Peel, adjacent to the site of the former swimming pool. The closure period is from 9.00 a.m. on Tuesday, 2nd. May to 5.00 p.m. on Thursday, 31st. August 1995 for the purpose of a display and exhibition consisting of a re-enactment by Peel Town Commissioners of the provision of fencing and other apparatus which was associated with the Peveril Internment Camp during World War II. During the closure period pedestrians and vehicles will continue to have free access to adjacent premises, and any pedestrian access to the foreshore shall not be affected. Access along the closed road will continue but only on the parts of it which are not being utilised by the display and exhibition equipment installed in the road. Vehicles will continue to have access along the road to a turning place at the eastern end of Marine Parade. The promoter is Peel Town Commissioners.
